PARENT PASSIVE CONSENT FORM

for Eleventh Grade Sexual Health Review Class

Dear Parent:

East Lansing High School is offering a sexual health education review class for 11th graders during Excel hour. As a parent, you have the right to excuse your child from sexual health education without penalty.

The class is taught by ELHS health education teachers and community health educators from Willow Adolescent Health Center Ingham County Health Department, Board of Education Approved Guest Speakers. The objectives for this class are taken from the ELPS Sexual Health Education Curriculum. You may preview the curriculum and materials by contacting your school's principal. The objectives are:

Students will:

- Summarize facts about STIs and illustrate how STIs spread in a progressive manner.
- Identify risk behaviors for transmission of STIs and HIV and protective behaviors to reduce risk of infection with STIs and HIV.
- Identify ways to reduce the risk for STIs, HIV and pregnancy, including abstinence.
- Identify places to access contraceptive information, products, and services.

If you decide that your child should not participate in this class, they will be excused without penalty. To do so, complete the Exclusion Request below and return it to school office by (ask teachers or office staff).
