Dori Leyko, Superintendent

Superintendent's report

Glencairn/Pinecrest boundary shift planned.
Public concerns were brought forth and taken into consideration.
Nov. 26 new options will be proposed
Dec. 10 Board of Education (BoE) decision is expected

BoE election

Still not final – should be certified around Thanksgiving

Operating Millage & Sinking Millage were passed in the last election.

Sidebar:

Redistricting issues for all elementary school should be seen district wide.

Question: New boundary for Donley and Marble being discussed?

Superintendent Leyko advises, that at this time only the Glencairn/Pinecrest boundaries are being reevaluated.

Admitted School of choice students will be treated like district students.

Each Elementary School building is planned to house 290 to 300 students.

Questions about boundary shift/school issues email to DPC/ Lisa Rutkowski and she will forward them to Superintendent Leyko.
