

There was a teenaged boy named Scott Markerson he was only 14 years old when both of his parents died in a car wreck. Others from the adoption center said he deserved better and needed more love but no one would adopt him because they said he was too old or they did not like his bad choices. So he was very lonely while watching all the other kids be adopted by loving people till he was the only one left. Two years go by waiting for a person of any kind to adopt him. It did not matter what the person was like, he just wanted to be loved. He prayed and prayed. But on July 12th Tuesday Evening 2022 an old woman came into the adoption center and said she wanted to adopt a kid that is old enough to help her at home. Mr. Cane went to room 204 to find Scott sitting in the corner on the floor praying. Mr. Cane heard mumbling. All he could hear was "I pray to the lord in heaven please- but before Scott could finish his sentence MR. Cane spoke up and said Scott there is a woman named MRS. Amber and she wants to adopt you. Scott jumped up in excitement and started to yell yes yes im to finally be adopted.

I'm finally going to be loved. And ran out into the hallway to yell MRS. Amber, I'm ready to go home.

When he got to the desk he saw a note from MRS. Amber said I filled out the papers and I'm in the parking lot waiting for you so we can go home. So Scott went back to his room to grab the only thing that he had left. A book called the way home his mom gave him when he was seven on his birthday. there was only 22 chapters in the book but he is on chapter six. On page 326 the book said "the only way to find your home is to Imagine what home is like". And after he grabbed the book he ran out the door of the adoption center. To find a nice looking truck. He went up to the truck just to hear the old lady yell hey are you scott markerson. When Scott looked over to the left. He saw two bikes and MRS. amber said this is what we are riding home so get used to it. Scott said it was alright because this person MRS. amber loves me right? MRS. Amber told Scott they have to ride their bikes for 16 miles. Scott was shocked but he did not care; he just wanted to go home with the person that loved him to bits. So once they were seven miles almost home it started to get dark and you could see the sun set. The sunset was beautiful and even more beautiful when it got darker. Scott loved to watch the sky. He loved to watch the sunset while it got darker and darker with his parents. Now he wondered if he and MRS. amber would watch the sunset. They finally got to the house MRS. amber said well this is the home. You see that shed over there. Scott replied with a yes. MRS. amber said with a stern voice well if you would be so kind too put both of the bikes away and i will get started with dinner. Scott thought to himself "that he is going to love it here." After shoving the bikes in the shed he came out and started to walk to the house but before he could step on the porch a little duck came by. Scott picked up the little duck and saw that the wing was twisted so he took the little duck inside and scott yelled MRS. amber where are you. And MRS amber yelled back I'm in the kitchen down the hallway on the right. Scott walked to the kitchen with the little duck in his hand and walked up to MRS. amber. MRS. amber had more to say because she said. "And you can call me mom. Scott said" well mom i found this little duck on the porch and i'm going to name him tucker...tucker greg markerson". MRS amber replied with "well we better help the little fella it looks like his wing is twisted. So they went up the creaky old stairs to make a left turn into the bathroom to help the little duck. First mom had got some toilet paper then she got some elmer's glue out of the cabinet. Then she filled up the sink with warm water and poured in the glue to micks with her finger. Then she dipped the toilet paper in the water to get it soaked and raped it around the wing. MRS. Amber told Scott to let the paper dry while we eat. So they rushed down the stairs to turn off the stove before the food caught on fire.

Scott sat the table and wondered what is for dinner. When MRS. amber said come and make you plate. Scott got up from his seat and set the little duck down on the table and walked over to the counter to make his plate and he saw the most food he had ever seen in his life. He had seen corn, bread, green beans, and some good old mac, n cheese. Scott said tucker must have been hungry because he is loving the macaroni and cheese. After Tucker and Scott were done with their food mrs. Amber showed them their forever room. Scott said thank you for the food and laid down on the bed and put the duck on one of the three pillows and went to sleep. Scott had a dream off his parents and they had not got in a car crash and that him and his family had a good life But at 2:24 wednesday MRS. amber got a call from the adoption center saying that scott has a sister and they are going to pick up him and MRS.amber from her house to meet his little sister. After that call MRS.amber called scott to come down stairs and get ready to go. Scott came down the stairs and said .Mom, where are we going this early. MRS.amber replied and said scott it's 2:46pm and there is someone waiting to meet you at the adoption center. Scott wondered who it was because he had no family or friends. MR.cane pulled up in the driveway of MRS.ambers house and honked the horn twice. Scott, MRS.amber,and tucker came out of the house, locked the door and got into the car. Mrs.amber and MR.cane talked on the way to the adoption center while scott looked outside the car window to watch the clouds as they flew away in the sky and formed different shapes in the sky. When they finally got to the adoption center a little girl ran out of the building and stopped in front of the car to yell where is my brother scott. When scott got out of the car the little ran and hugged scott tight and said i'm so happy to meet you. You're the only person that i,ve got. Scott asked the little girl what is your name and she replied with my name is Emily.. Emily Rose markerson. Scott didn't know what to feel sad, happy, mad, or angry, but he hugged her back. [he did not know who she was because he thought his sister was dead from the car crash.] When she was born the baby and the parents were in the car and when the light turned green they went through the light but a drunk driver passed the red light and hit his parents car and everyone died. Except emily. But after MR. cane told scott this is his sister she did not die in the car crash scott rushed over to his sister and said "you are the best thing that happened to me in the past two years im so lucky to have you as my sister thank you emily. And Emily MRS.amber said you can call me mom because you are coming home with us to your forever home. Emily squealed in excitement and said yes yes i get to see my brother again. Thank you MRS.amber. Thank you so much. So Mr.cane took all of them home after three hours and it turns out Emily likes clouds too. She saw cows, dogs and DUCKS. Scott yelled tucker i forgot about Tucker. We have to get home quickly. So they hopped in the car and drove 16 miles to MRS.ambers house when they got there scott jumped out of the car and told emily to follow him up the stairs so she did and they found tucker laying on the bed sleeping when scoot picked up little tucker his cast was dry and he was awake little tucker sood up in scotts hand and started to dance. So Emily started to dance too and sooner than you know it Scott started to dance too. Then they plopped on the bed in front of them and started to laughing for a long time. And again they had a wonderful dinner and Mrs. Amber said get used to it.
