One-on-one coaching

How is it going for teachers and students?

Teachers report feeling comfortable with the routines of the shared reading and DI blocks

Students are highly engaged with the variety of texts presented throughout the program.

Students like the shared reading texts

What Successes Have we had?

More specific differentiated skill instruction

Use of the IDI (informal decoding inventory) has supported the data conversations throughout the year.

The shared reading block provided predictable, intentional structures that support research-based, best practices in foundational reading skills.

Highlighting Teacher Spotlights

Increased use of anchor spots

What challenges have we faced?

Adjusting to a new curriculum- pacing, engagement, embedded assessments

Schedules

Shift in thinking about reading and writing instruction.
