Meeting Topics/Action Items

- Student Acceptable Use Policy (AUP) Update
 - Discussed potential issues with policy on acceptable use for students. Will take back to Policy committee to consider minor changes that will better reflect our actual practices. Also discussed AUP for staff policy and initial implementation.
- Other tech updates
 - MMS technology update (moving from 1:1 to carts)
 - ELHS will stay 1:1 (moving to all Chromebooks after this year; no more laptops after the seniors this year turn them back in)
 - Ordered 360 Chromebooks, 160 desk tops for the district
 - Updated wireless touchpoints in the high school; continuing ELHS A/V update
- Student Services/Master Scheduling
 - Received information from high school administration about a new ELHS Student Services Vision Statement, Goals, and Action Steps for 2022-2023.

East Lansing Public Schools Board of Education

- Other curriculum updates
 - Summer school (elementary) – summer learning camp: focused on kiddos who were identified as needing a little more support.
 - Middle School 101 and High School 101 have great attendance and are operating well – learning things to improve for next year, but really pleased with results.
 - Bookworm (reading program in elementary) rollout happening. Trainings started in June with teachers, materials ordered and coming in to schools now. Science and Social Studies at MMS also rolling out – training happening. All materials in for that and all looks good.

Announcements
